Badger Bank Continues Support of Jefferson High School by Sponsoring Four Charging Stations for Student and Guest Use

JEFFERSON – (February 17, 2017) – Badger Bank is pleased to announce the sponsorship of four electronic charging stations inside the Jefferson High School. These charging stations are available to students and guests within the school who need access to charge their mobile and smart devices both for educational and recreational use.

“In addition to our School Spirit Debit Card program, we are pleased to continue our support of Jefferson High School through the sponsorship of these charging stations,” said Robyn Newcomb, Assist Vice President of Marketing at Badger Bank. “As technology continues to become more prevalent in the learning experience of students, we will continue our evolution as well ensuring we assist in ways that benefit today’s students.”
