What we do

How does Badger Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.
We authorize our employees to get your information only when they need it to do their work and we require companies that work for us to protect your information.

How does Badger Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an Account or Make a Wire Transfer
- Apply for a Loan or Show Your Driver's License
- Use Your Credit or Debit Card

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes--information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
